History Meets Opportunity

Nestled in the peaceful village of Bodangora, just a short drive from Wellington, St Paul's Church offers a unique chance to own a piece of local history.

Built with timeless character and enduring craftsmanship, this former church stands as a striking reminder of a bygone era.

With its soaring ceilings, original features and classic proportions, the building is full of character.

Whether you're drawn by its historic charm any creative repurposing would be subject to council approval.

Set against a backdrop of rolling countryside and positioned on an RU1 Primary production allotment some 9,860m2 (approx. 2.43 acres over 5 lots), the church combines rural tranquillity with convenience, making it a truly rare offering in today's market.

Brimming with character, soaring ceilings and original features, this is a unique offering that inspires imagination. (STCA).

Please note that internal furnishings are not included in the sale and the seller makes no warranties. Interested parties are to rely on their own enquiries. Power is the only service connected to the property.
