This Federation beauty stands proudly with its distinctive red brick facade, gracefully arched windows, and period features that are a testament to timeless craftsmanship. The stained glass windows throughout the home bring in natural light, creating a warm and inviting ambiance. Every corner of this house tells a story, from the soaring high ceilings to the timber floorboards that flow effortlessly from room to room.

Step inside and you're greeted by a spacious living area, anchored by an open wood fireplace that promises cozy winter evenings. The French doors beckon you outside to a private verandah, ideal for quiet mornings.
The country-style kitchen is a delightful blend of rustic charm and modern amenities.

All four bedrooms are generously proportioned, each offering its own slice of serenity.
