Prime Cropping Country in Quambone!

Located in the Quambone district, being *8.7km south-west of Quambone, *64km west of Coonamble and *83km north of Warren is where you will find this well renowned cultivating farmland known as "Yahgunya Cotton". Consisting of approximately 986.97 hectares or *2,438.86 acres of laser levelled cultivating country which consists of a good variety of soil including grey/black self-mulching and some red loamy. There is also 13.79 hectares licenced from the crown for additional cultivation. The property is predominantly cleared with *980 hectares arable with some timbered boundaries. There is a 6 megalitre stock and domestic licence attached to the holding, a large dam and 600 megalitre reservoir from the irrigation era. 3 x 22,500 litre water storage tanks fill from the large machinery shed, and the Marthaguy Creek runs outside the western boundary. The holding is fenced into 3 paddocks, the largest paddock of approximately 850 hectares is for cropping and the two smaller paddocks for grazing. This property has previously cropped canola, barley and wheat. All fencing is in good condition and will include a new exclusion boundary fencing that is currently being constructed. The property also has outstanding infrastructure which includes 8 x 103 tonne self-emptying sealed silos, 2 x 51 tonne fertiliser silos, and a large colorbond Machinery Shed. Your inspection is highly recommended.
