The home itself is full of warmth and character, featuring three spacious bedrooms plus a separate office, ideal for those working from home or needing extra flexibility. The master bedroom includes a built-in wardrobe, while the heart of the home is the generous kitchen complete with island bench, breakfast bar and an abundance of storage. A large bathroom with walk-in shower adds practicality, while the fireplace creates a cosy ambience during the cooler months and air-conditioning keeps things comfortable year-round. Solar panels help keep energy costs to a minimum, adding further appeal to this lifestyle package.

Across a short walkway from the main residence are several additional rooms offering endless possibilities ï¿½ whether you are looking for a workshop, extra storage, hobby space or potential guest accommodation. Surrounding the home, the beautifully crafted stonework gardens create a stunning natural water feature during the wet season, adding even more charm and serenity to this unique property.
