SECLUDED 2.9 ACRE BUSH BLOCK IN HISTORICAL WALHALLA!

Discover your own piece of untouched natural bushland in the gorgeous historical village of Walhalla. This secluded bush block offers the perfect retreat from city life, boasting a cleared camping site for your ultimate escape and leave the city behind and embrace the ambiance of nature. This bush block offers a serene sanctuary away from the urban hustle and bustle.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

A cleared site is ready for your camping setup, creating a comfortable space to unwind and reconnect. Only a few short kilometres from the township where you can enjoy an ale in the Wally pub or chill out on a soft serve ice cream from the friendly General store.

There's even the Walhalla Railway to enjoy.

NOTE: To find this block via GPS it is located on the corner of "Happy Go Lucky Road & Scarf Track" (See maps for more detail). Currently included in a "Farming zone" so no building permission likely to be granted under the current planning scheme. Please make your own enquiries with the relevant council regarding any proposed further development of this site. Being sold as a freehold private camping site only for recreational use.
