Gorgeous cottage on the hill on 511m2...what more can you wa

With views as far as they eye can see this incredible home is ready for its new owners. Two great size bedrooms, master with ensuite, and a second bathroom to service the rest of the home, not to mention a second living area with study nook area, you have everything you need and more. With hardwood floors throughout and so much natural light you feel right at home as you enter. The beautiful well appointed kitchen has 600 mm appliances and loads of bench and cupboard space for the chef of the home. Open kitchen family and dining allows the family to be together.

Split system heating and cooling to keep you comfortable all year round. Water tanks plumbed and filtered in to the toilets and for garden use. Double glazed windows to the rear of the home and concrete stumps. Only a stones throw from the fantastic Kmart and Bunnings complex in Warragul you know you will have everything at your doorstep.
