The home's interior showcases 3 bedrooms with rumpus room (large master with walk in wardrobe and luxurious ensuite), equally stylish main bathroom, and also a powder room which is situated off the living area. Add to this the contemporary kitchen with copious amounts of bench and cupboard space; modern SMEG appliances, induction cooktop and butler's pantry featuring a built in SMEG dishwasher.

On the lower level of the home, there is double garage and internal access. This level also offers a second family living space via a huge rumpus room, 2 bedrooms with built-ins & ceiling fans, substantial laundry with plenty of storage and access to the back court yard with immaculately presented low maintenance gardens with space for the kids to play.

This townhouse is a stage for both entertainment and intimate daily living. It has been designed to filter and maximise the abundant light, which also offers privacy for the modern family.
