This strategically placed abode offers a promise of transformation with post-tenancy TLC. Boasting two generously sized bedrooms, both featuring built-in robes and ceiling fans, the property ensures a comfortable retreat. While it houses a practical half bathroom, the great size separate toilet accommodates daily conveniences.

A testament to modern living, the well-appointed kitchen is a culinary haven with gas cooking, ample bench space, and copious storage solutions, merging seamlessly with the dining and a capacious living area. Residents will revel in the split system air-conditioning and additional ceiling fans that provide year-round comfort.

Outdoor enthusiasts will be delighted with the expansive undercover alfresco area, perfect for entertaining, and the substantial yard space ideal for children's play or leisurely relaxation. The unit also includes a secure single lock-up garage.

Significantly, this dwelling stands out with no body corporate fees, merely a shared insurance cost. Positioned on a quiet street, yet conveniently close to shops, schools, parks, shopping amenities, and public transport, the location promises a blend of serenity and accessibility.

Encompassing a floor area of 96 sqm within a 109 sqm block, this property not only epitomises value but also a lifestyle of ease and convenience. Anticipation is high, and viewing is essential to fully appreciate what is on offer at 1/26 Bennett Way.
