Rarely does an opportunity arise to acquire a residence of such historical significance and harbourfront prominence with the added potential to renovate, enhance and unlock substantial future value in one of Sydney Harbour's most tightly held waterfront settings

Positioned on the ground floor and nestled directly on the harbour's edge, this iconic three-bedroom strata residence enjoys breathtaking, uninterrupted views across Sirius Cove to the Taronga Zoo foreshore and main Harbour. Complete with its own private jetty and beautifully manicured common gardens, the property blends timeless architectural charm with an enviable waterfront setting.

Generously proportioned throughout, the apartment features three spacious bedrooms, two bathrooms, a well-appointed open-plan kitchen, and polished hardwood floorboards. The expansive open-plan living and dining areas extend to a private terrace overlooking the landscaped gardens and Sydney Harbour beyond, creating an idyllic environment for both relaxed living and sophisticated entertaining.

Complementing its enviable waterfront setting, the residence offers secure undercover parking and enjoys a highly convenient location, just moments from Musgrave Street Wharf with bus and ferry transport options.

This remarkable waterfront residence represents a once-in-a-generation opportunity to secure a piece of Sydney's maritime history in one of the harbour's most exclusive and picturesque enclaves.
