Tastefully renovated around nine years ago, the single-level layout is light-filled, spacious and ready to enjoy. Positioned at the front of the complex, the villa captures plenty of sunshine and a lovely sense of privacy. The well-appointed kitchen is ideal for entertaining, complemented by a modern bathroom, open plan living and dining, and a generous courtyard designed for relaxed outdoor living.

Additional features include: single lock-up garage with internal access and excellent loft storage, enhancing the home's practical appeal; solar power and solar hot water; and air conditioning in the living area.

The small, self-managed strata of just three residences is immaculately maintained, with owners taking pride in the gardens and overall presentation - making this an easy, worry-free place to call home. Investors too will find the villa appealing with a current rental appraisal of $660-690 per week.
