At the heart of the home, the contemporary kitchen features a striking colour palette with stone benchtops, walk-in pantry and quality appliances and provides an effortless flow into the dining and open plan living zone, which extends outdoors to a covered alfresco area – perfect for gatherings all year round, while a front formal lounge offers a peaceful retreat. The spacious main retreat includes a walk-in robe, double vanity ensuite and a tranquil view of the neighbouring reserve and the 3 secondary bedrooms feature great storage and a convenient position near the family bathroom. Gas ducted heating and evaporative cooling ensure seasonal comfort. Set opposite a picturesque reserve just a short stroll to the Twin Towns walking track, this walkable location enjoys easy access to Drouin's CBD, schools and train station.

Whether you're searching for a quality residence to call home or looking to secure a high-performing investment, this property delivers
