The apartment features an open plan living and dining area, creating a comfortable space for everyday living. The kitchen is well positioned with a breakfast bar and ample storage, while the main living area opens directly onto a generous balcony, providing a great place to enjoy your morning coffee or an afternoon breeze overlooking the complex pool. The bedroom is privately positioned and includes its own balcony access, giving the apartment an added sense of space and allowing plenty of natural light and fresh air throughout.

Residents also have access to the complex swimming pool, BBQ area and landscaped gardens, with the property offering secure basement parking, visitor parking, intercom entry and an onsite building manager.

Located close to Southport Park Shopping Centre, Ferry Road Markets, schools, public transport and the Broadwater, the property is also within easy reach of Australia Fair, the Gold Coast Light Rail, Surfers Paradise, and the wider Gold Coast. With everyday conveniences and lifestyle attractions all nearby, the location makes both living and renting here highly appealing.

Potential plus with plenty of outdoor space and a convenient position, Unit 10 is an opportunity worth inspecting.
