This well-presented two-bedroom home is ideally located in the popular seaside suburb of Port Noarlunga. The property features an open-plan living and dining area complete with a wood combustion heater and ducted evaporative cooling for year-round comfort.

The spacious master bedroom includes a walk-in robe and direct access to the bathroom, while the second bedroom offers built-in cupboards and picturesque outlooks. A large country-style eat-in kitchen overlooks the rear yard and enclosed entertaining patio, creating a welcoming space for everyday living and entertaining.

Outdoors, the home offers multiple areas to relax, including a wrap-around verandah, gazebo and patio set amid beautifully landscaped gardens. Additional features include a 6kW solar system, single carport and garden shed (note: the large rear shed is not available for tenant use).

Perfectly positioned close to the iconic Port Noarlunga Beach, with easy access to public transport, shopping centres, schools and the Southern wine region. Garden maintenance is included in the rental price.
