Whether you're looking to run livestock, establish your dream hobby farm, enjoy horse riding, or simply escape the pace of city life, this property provides the freedom to create the lifestyle you've always imagined. With wide open paddocks with troughs, quality fencing, stock water, day yards and excellent infrastructure already in place, it's ready for work while still leaving plenty of room for fun.

Imagine waking to the sound of birdsong as the sun rises across the paddocks, enjoying your morning coffee while taking in uninterrupted rural views, then spending the day exploring your own slice of the countryside. Kids will love the freedom to ride motorbikes, build cubbies, fishing and boating in nearby waterways, or simply experience the magic of growing up surrounded by nature. There's room for family cricket matches, camping under the stars, gathering around a fire pit on cool evenings, and creating memories that simply can't be made on a suburban block.

After a rewarding day outdoors, retreat to the beautifully presented home where warmth, comfort and country charm welcome you inside. Spacious living areas, generous bedrooms and inviting entertaining spaces provide the perfect place to relax with family and friends while overlooking the postcard-worthy landscape.

Despite the peaceful rural setting, you're only minutes from Echuca, giving you easy access to schools with bus pick up/drop off at front of property. Enjoy shopping, cafes, restaurants, sporting facilities and the magnificent Murray River. It truly is the best of both worlds—country tranquillity with town convenience.

Whether your dream is to continue a productive farming enterprise, create an equine haven, establish a boutique agricultural venture, operate a farm stay (STCA), or simply enjoy a remarkable country lifestyle, this exceptional 110-acre property offers endless opportunities.

More than just a farm, this is a place where families grow, friendships flourish, sunsets become a nightly event, and every season paints a new masterpiece across the landscape. Welcome home to the country lifestyle you've always dreamed of.
