Explore some of the area's popular Walking trails including, The Willunga Basin Walking Trail and the Old Sellicks Hill Road Track are two popular walking trails in the Fleurieu Peninsula region of South Australia.

The Willunga Basin Walking Trail is a 5km loop trail that takes you through the picturesque countryside surrounding the town of Willunga. The trail is well-marked and easy to follow, making it a great option for hikers of all skill levels. Along the way, you'll pass through lush green fields, rolling hills, and picturesque vineyards. You'll also encounter a variety of flora and fauna, including wildflowers, birds, and other wildlife.

The Old Sellicks Hill Road Track is a 3km trail that follows an old road that was once used to transport goods between the towns of Sellicks Beach and Willunga. The trail offers stunning views of the surrounding countryside, including the Gulf St Vincent and the Fleurieu Peninsula. Along the way, you'll also encounter several historic sites, including the ruins of an old stone cottage and several old farm buildings.

Both walking trails offer a great way to experience the natural beauty and history of the Fleurieu Peninsula region. Whether you're a seasoned hiker or a casual walker, you're sure to enjoy the stunning scenery and the opportunity to explore the unique culture and heritage of South Australia.

Close by McLaren Vale, known for its world-renowned wine region, and there are plenty of wineries and breweries to explore, as well as excellent restaurants to visit. Offering wine tastings, vineyard tours, and cellar door experiences where you can learn about the winemaking process and sample some of the region's finest wines.

If you're a beer lover, be sure to check out one of the many local breweries which offer a range of craft beers that are made using locally sourced ingredients and traditional brewing methods.
