With family living and entertaining top of mind, the home features multiple living areas, elegant finishes and a seamless blend of classic features and modern conveniences. Whether you're relaxing by the fireplace, entertaining on the expansive patio, or enjoying the peaceful outlook from the upstairs balcony, every space has been thoughtfully created to feel warm and inviting.

The kitchen sits in the heart of the home, featuring stone benchtops, premium appliances, generous cupboards and storage space, overlooking the dining and family living areas. The formal lounge with its cosy fireplace provides the perfect retreat, while the family room is beautifully framed by a charming bay window overlooking the landscaped backyard.

Upstairs offers four generous bedrooms, including a spacious master suite complete with a walk-in robe and private ensuite. Two additional bedrooms open onto a large covered balcony, creating the perfect place to unwind. The luxurious family bathroom features a stunning claw-foot bath, adding to the home's timeless appeal.

Outside, the beautifully landscaped gardens provide a private sanctuary for children to play and for family and friends to gather, with ample room to enjoy Queensland's outdoor lifestyle. Side access offers plenty of space for a caravan, boat or additional vehicles, while a garden shed provides extra storage.
