Imagine More Room For Living. Can You Picture It?

Why we're obsessed with 12 Eucalypt Court:

A little more space, a fresh new feel and a price point that makes family living more achievable. Set in the popular Rivendale Estate, this welcoming four-bedroom home offers the kind of generous proportions that make everyday life feel easier. With refreshed interiors, stylish timber-look flooring and plenty of natural light, it's a home where you can move straight in, spread out and make yourself comfortable.

The heart of the home is the impressively spacious open-plan living and dining area, where there's room for the whole family to come together without feeling on top of one another. The updated kitchen adds a contemporary touch with its contrasting dark cabinetry, quality appliances, excellent storage and generous island breakfast bar, perfect for everything from quick weekday breakfasts to weekend catch-ups. Four well-sized bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, including a main bedroom with walk-in robe and ensuite, while the remaining bedrooms feature built-in robes and share a central family bathroom. Gas ducted heating and split-system air conditioning add to the home's everyday comfort.

When it's time to head outdoors, the covered alfresco offers a relaxed spot for a barbecue or an afternoon with friends, while a separate decked sitting area provides a sunny little escape. The private backyard is framed by established greenery, creating a pleasant space to unwind without demanding every weekend of your time. With a double garage, garden shed, practical family layout and room to grow, this home offers plenty to love for first home buyers, young families and investors alike. Best of all, it delivers the space and comfort you're looking for at a more accessible price point.
