Offering approximately 36.67 squares under roof and 265 square metres of living, the substantial floorplan has been thoughtfully designed for modern family life, with four generous bedrooms plus a dedicated study nook.

The grand master suite provides a luxurious private retreat, complete with walk-in robe and full ensuite featuring a double vanity and bath. Three additional bedrooms also featuring walk-in robes and serviced by a stylish central bathroom, plus separate powder room.

At the heart of the home, the beautifully appointed kitchen features a generous butler's pantry and two dishwashers, flowing seamlessly to the spacious meals and family room. Recessed ceilings enhance the sense of space, while expansive doors extend entertaining outdoors to the alfresco area.

Practicality is equally impressive, with an extra-large double integrated garage incorporating a dedicated workshop, internal access and a rear roller door providing convenient access to the backyard.

Low-maintenance gardens surround the home, providing an easy-care outdoor setting, while a generous walk-in linen cupboard adds valuable storage. Year-round comfort is assured with gas central heating and powerful 18kw capacity refrigerated cooling, complemented by 3-phase power, an alarm system, and water tank connected to the toilets.

A remarkable contemporary home offering exceptional space, style, efficiency and an enviable Macedon Ranges lifestyle.
