Positioned on an approx. 692sqm block, the home is ideal for first home buyers, families or buyers looking for a well-located property with a practical layout and great outdoor space.

The large lounge room provides a welcoming place to relax and flows through to the dining area, while the spacious kitchen overlooks the family room. The kitchen includes gas cooking, plenty of bench space and a built-in pantry, making it well suited to everyday living.

The main bedroom includes a mirrored built-in robe and access to the semi ensuite bathroom, while the home also features ceiling fans, bay windows, security screen doors, evaporative air conditioning, a gas bayonet and a gas storage hot water system.

Outside, there is plenty of room to enjoy, with a patio and pergola area overlooking the manicured lawns and reticulated gardens. A garden shed provides extra storage, while the garage plus carport offer handy parking options.

Conveniently located close to schools, shops and public transport, this is a fantastic opportunity to secure a home in a sought-after Thornlie location and make it your own.
