The versatile floorplan provides plenty of flexibility, with five bedrooms, two bathrooms and separate living and dining areas creating a practical layout for everyday living. The kitchen has been thoughtfully updated in recent years, offering a modern and functional space at the heart of the home.

Split system air conditioning in every room ensures year round comfort, while the low maintenance nature of the property means you can enjoy the space without being tied down by extensive upkeep.

Perhaps the standout feature is the huge four car garage, comfortably accommodating four vehicles while providing an exceptional amount of secure parking, storage or workshop space. A feature of this size and versatility is a genuine rarity and will appeal to car enthusiasts, tradespeople, families or anyone simply wanting plenty of room.

Outside, there is a manageable outdoor area providing space to enjoy without the maintenance of a large yard.

Currently leased at $730 per week, the property also offers an attractive investment proposition, providing a strong existing rental return for those looking to add to their portfolio.
