At the heart of the home is a welcoming living environment designed for both everyday comfort and entertaining. The generous floorplan provides excellent separation between living zones, while the theatre room creates the perfect space for relaxing with family and friends.

Outside, the property truly comes into its own. An incredible undercover alfresco area provides an inviting extension of the home's living space and is ideal for entertaining, enjoying weekend barbecues or simply sitting back and taking in the tranquil surroundings.

The established gardens have been beautifully maintained, creating a private and picturesque setting framing the home. There is plenty of room for children and pets to enjoy the outdoors, while the generous size of the property offers an enviable sense of space and freedom. For those needing additional storage, workspace or room for vehicles and equipment, the property also boasts a large shed with mezzanine level, adding a highly desirable practical element accessible via side access.
