House 4  2  2

No point saying you missed out

Well suited to modern family living and an affordable alternative to building your own, this stylish 4-bedroom home is well presented and well positioned. Occupying a flat 740m2 allotment in the popular Chesterfield Park estate in close proximity to public transport and within 500m of St. Angela of the Cross Primary School, this near new home features 2 separate living areas, designer kitchen with black stone benchtops, huge walk-in pantry, quality 900ml appliances and breakfast bar. Fitted with gas ducted heating and 2x split system air conditioners the home enjoys comfort all year round. Adjoining the large open plan living space is a private north facing alfresco area under roof. In addition to the double car garage with internal access is side gated vehicle access to the rear yard where there is an additional parking bay ideal for caravans, boats and trailers. The fully enclosed and north facing rear yard is a blank canvas for the garden artist and there's plenty of room for shedding. There's lots to like about this one and it won't break your budget!
