Million Dollar Views

Elevated elegance with breathtaking views at 14 Dekalb Street, Tamworth

Positioned high above the city in one of Tamworth's most commanding locations, this property offers a lifestyle that is as impressive as the views it enjoys. From sunrise over the surrounding hills to the twinkling lights of Tamworth after dark, this is a home that constantly reminds you how fortunate you are to live here.

Designed across multiple levels, the residence has been thoughtfully configured to provide both privacy and functionality for modern family living.

Occupying its own private floor, the master retreat is a true sanctuary. Complete with a spacious walk-in robe that can be designed to suit your own needs and ensuite with your own private spa, it's a place where you can escape the demands of everyday life while enjoying uninterrupted views across the city and beyond. Waking up each morning to this stunning outlook feels more like a luxury getaway than a daily routine.

The heart of the home lies within the main living level, where comfort and style combine effortlessly. Here, you'll find two additional bedrooms serviced by a well-appointed family bathroom, creating the perfect wing for children, guests, or extended family.

At the centre, a sophisticated galley-style kitchen is the hub of the home. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, it flows seamlessly through the dining and living areas before extending out onto the elevated balcony. This seamless connection between indoors and outdoors creates an incredible sense of space, allowing family gatherings, morning coffees, and evening entertaining to be enjoyed against a spectacular backdrop of Tamworth's skyline. Venture downstairs and you'll discover one of the property's most exciting and versatile features.

Opening into a vast multi-purpose area, this lower level presents endless possibilities. Whether you're looking for a home business space, home gym, creative studio, teenagers' retreat, more bedrooms or additional living quarters, the choice is entirely yours. With its own separate entry and additional bathroom facilities, this space offers the flexibility to adapt as your family's needs evolve.

It's rare to find a property that combines elevated views, generous family accommodation, and such remarkable versatility under one roof. At 14 Dekalb Street, you're not simply purchasing a house, you're investing in a lifestyle.
