Offering huge appeal for a wide range of buyer, including families and investors, this single-level home boasts great space with the versatility families are seeking. Located in a leafy pocket close to a wide range of amenities, there is move-in ready comfort with scope to add value if desired.

Positioned across the road from a leafy reserve, the home opens to light-filled interiors with tiled floors stretching throughout. Air-conditioned lounge and dining is set in flowing open-plan with a separate family room providing superb family living flexibility. Centrally set in the open-plan zone, the kitchen offers superb storage, stainless appliances and expansive bench space in a large footprint. Ready to serve for years to come, the generous sizing enhances excellent opportunity for a cosmetic upgrade if desired.

Extend your living and dining outdoors with a large, covered patio offering great space to host family and friends. There is direct flow out to a massive backyard, fenced for peace of mind, and providing room for a pool as well as a blank canvas in which to create the outdoor zone of your dreams.

Four built-in bedrooms are available; the master including a walk-in robe and private ensuite with a well-appointed second bathroom providing family-friendly provision. Additional features include a separate laundry with storage, ceiling fans, security screens and a double remote garage.

Enjoying a position in central Ormeau, there is excellent access to a huge range of amenities including local shops, food outlets and both primary and secondary schooling. Those seeking an easy commute will love the provision of both bus and rail nearby as well as the M1.
