Hybrid timber flooring enhances the home's crisp contemporary aesthetic, creating a warm and inviting backdrop to the light-filled open-plan living and dining. Taking centre stage, the beautifully renovated kitchen combines sleek white joinery with quality stainless steel appliances, expansive stone benches and a statement waterfall island with generous breakfast bar seating.

Sliding doors open to a covered patio, with a second covered entertaining area providing exceptional space to relax or entertain. Wonderfully private and fully fenced, the expansive backyard offers endless room for children and pets to play, evenings around the fire pit and the opportunity to add a future swimming pool if desired.

Four well-proportioned bedrooms provide flexible family accommodation, with the fourth ideally positioned to also serve as a separate lounge, home office or children's retreat if desired. The master enjoys a walk-in robe and private ensuite, whilst the main bathroom includes a separate bath for added family convenience.

Completing the home is a separate laundry and double remote garage whilst gated side access, concrete parking bay and a huge shed with roller door entry provide exceptional provision for toys or trades.

Perfectly complementing the home's outstanding family appeal, this sought-after address places local shopping, dining and bus services all within easy walking distance, along with the highly regarded Livingstone Christian College. Rail services and major transport corridors are just minutes away, ensuring exceptional connectivity and everyday convenience.
