By Appointment.

Positioned on a generous 615sqm allotment, the home has been thoughtfully updated while retaining its welcoming charm. The light-filled, air-conditioned living area flows seamlessly onto the front deck, creating the perfect space to relax or entertain family and friends.

The modern renovated kitchen offers a practical layout with plenty of storage and bench space, while both bedrooms are generously proportioned, providing flexibility for couples, families or those working from home.

Step outside to enjoy the rear deck, an ideal spot for your morning coffee or evening unwind. Completing the home is a well-appointed laundry with excellent storage, a double tandem carport and additional off-street driveway parking.

Conveniently located within walking distance to Petrie Train Station and the University, this home delivers an enviable lifestyle with everything you need close by.
