Vincent Street is Cessnock's main street. You'll be close to banks, retailers, cafes, professional services and council facilities, with strong street presence and easy access for customers and staff from the street or from the car parking (both private and public) at the rear of the building.

Locals and visitors pass by every day, which gives you strong exposure for retail, hospitality, medical or professional use.

Parking nearby makes it easy for clients to drop in, stay longer and come back.
