This is the kind of home that makes everyday living feel smoother from the start.

With four bedrooms and a layout that's built around space and flow, it's designed to handle busy routines without feeling overwhelming. Whether it's mornings on the go or evenings winding down, everything fits together the way it should.

The master bedroom offers a private ensuite, creating a space to step away when needed, while the rest of the home centres around a comfortable living area that feels open, connected, and easy to enjoy.

The kitchen sits right where the action is — practical, functional, and ready to keep up with everything from quick meals to weekend cooking.

A double garage adds that extra layer of convenience, making day-to-day living that much easier.

Set in a growing Clyde community, you're surrounded by schools, parks, and everyday amenities — a location that continues to evolve while keeping things convenient.

Property Features:

- 4 well-sized bedrooms
- 2 bathrooms
- Spacious central living area
- Functional kitchen with ample storage
- Double garage

A home that brings together space, comfort, and a layout that works with your lifestyle — not against it.
