Offered to market for the very first time, this pristine home has been immaculately kept by a single owner with the pride of a high quality build. Framed by lush hedging, a welcoming street presence opens into a flowing single-level layout with tiled floors and ducted air-conditioning ensuring wonderful comfort in the Queensland climate. Boasting superb family flexibility with a multi-zoned floorplan, there is an expansive family and dining laid out in open-plan as well as a large lounge with plush new carpet and separate activity/rumpus room!

Embracing easy family connection with a central position, the kitchen has plenty of storage as well as stainless appliances and extra large fridge cavity. Generous bench space wraps around the zone, including a handy high bar and breakfast bar seating.

Tiled flooring maintains seamless connection between indoors and out, underpinning a large, covered alfresco perfect for outdoor relaxation and entertaining. You can spill out into the huge backyard, fenced and including lush greenery, whilst also providing ample room for kids to play or to install a swimming pool!

Four bedrooms each include plush new carpet and built-in storage with a separate home office offering options to have a fifth bedroom if required. The master includes a walk-in robe and private ensuite whilst the family have immaculate service by a well-designed bathroom with separate bath. Additional features include a laundry with walk-in linen, garden shed, water tank, security screens, new LED lighting, CCTV and double remote garage.

Sitting in a quiet street close to expansive parkland and meandering walking tracks, this location lends itself to easy convenience perfect for a busy lifestyle. Mother Teresa Catholic Primary School is just down the road, as well as Ormeau Woods State High and early learning. Shopping and dining are a stone's throw away with the M1, bus and rail all servicing commuting demands.
