Great Block in Good Location

This is the last vacant block on the high side of a very nice street, in a great location. It has a good elevation with excellent view potential and has a very slight fall, presenting a range of options for house design and landscaping. The block is fully serviced with established fencing, and has no easements. The main sewer runs across the front near the front boundary. . Blocks of this quality are getting scarcer and scarcer in the beachside area.
