Spanning an impressive 242m² of single level luxury, this masterfully designed residence exudes timeless elegance at every turn. Mirror-finish timbers and richly veined marble flow seamlessly throughout, framed by an extraordinary 18.4 metre + ocean frontage. The expansive open plan living, dining and entertaining areas transition effortlessly to a generous beachfront balcony the ultimate vantage point to watch the waves roll in or whales migrating along the coastline.

The private master retreat is thoughtfully positioned away from the separate two bedroom guest wing, providing exceptional privacy. It features a high-gloss timber dressing room and a lavish marble ensuite complete with a spa bath. At the heart of the home, the gourmet kitchen showcases a striking granite island bench and a full suite of premium integrated Miele appliances, perfectly blending luxury with functionality.

Complete with a private entry foyer, three secure basement car spaces and two oversized storage cages features rarely found and highly sought after this exceptional residence delivers convenience without compromise.

Whether you're seeking an exclusive permanent residence or a luxurious lock-and-leave holiday home, this apartment offers an unparalleled beachfront lifestyle. Just moments from the heart of both Surfers Paradise and Broadbeach, you'll enjoy easy access to award-winning restaurants, boutique shopping, The Star Casino and Pacific Fair, while taking advantage of the building's outstanding resident facilities including a heated swimming pool, spa, gymnasium, sauna and private cinema.
