By Appointment.

Every aspect of the property has been thoughtfully renovated, complemented by recently landscaped, low-maintenance front and rear yards.

Polished timber floorboards extend throughout the home, while the light-filled living area is enhanced by multiple windows, creating a bright and welcoming atmosphere.

Positioned at the rear of the home is a large sleepout, providing a versatile space that could be used as a study, children's playroom, or hobby room.

Conveniently located within walking distance to local schools, public transport, and the T-Way, this property offers both lifestyle convenience and everyday functionality in a highly desirable location.

An inspection is highly recommended.
