Set on a sprawling 4000m² corner block with two-street frontage, this property provides room to move, play and entertain, all while enjoying the peace and privacy of a well-established neighbourhood.

As you arrive, the electric gates open to reveal a beautifully maintained property with a double garage, as well as a massive three-bay powered shed, making it ideal for those who need extra storage for tools, vehicles, or weekend adventure gear.

This home has been designed with comfort and convenience in mind, featuring four air-conditioned bedrooms, each offering ample space for relaxation. Three of the bedrooms include built-in robes, while the master suite boasts a spacious walk-in robe and a private ensuite.

In addition to the bedrooms, there is also a separate study, making it perfect for those who work from home, need a dedicated homework space, or simply want a quiet retreat. A generously sized rumpus or media room adds yet another dimension to this home, providing the perfect place for movie nights, games, or even a second living area for growing families.

The heart of the home is the stunning kitchen, which was completely renovated in 2023 to include modern finishes and top-of-the-line appliances. Featuring luxurious Caesarstone benchtops and a freestanding stove with a five-burner gas cooktop, this kitchen is an absolute dream for anyone who loves to cook and entertain.
