Nestled at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac in a well-established, tree-lined neighbourhood, this beautifully presented rendered brick and tile home offers the perfect blend of comfort, space, and low-maintenance living - ideal for families, first-home buyers, or savvy investors.

Step inside to discover three spacious, light-filled bedrooms, complemented by a versatile bonus rumpus room - perfect as a third living area, playroom, or private retreat for teens or guests. The stylishly updated kitchen boasts modern appliances, ample storage, and seamlessly connects to the open-plan dining and lounge area, creating a warm and inviting space for everyday living and effortless entertaining.

Outdoors, enjoy your morning coffee or evening unwind on the cosy, covered patio overlooking a private courtyard - a serene setting for alfresco dining or family BBQs. The fully fenced 500m² block provides a secure, child- and pet-friendly environment, with established gardens and room to play.

Located just minutes from the Cunningham Highway, this property offers an easy, approx. 40-minute commute to Brisbane, while nearby parks and green spaces are only a short stroll away - perfect for weekend outings or after-school adventures. This property is perfectly located being just under a 20-minute drive to Orion Shopping Centre, a short 10-minute drive to Ipswich CBD & Ripley Ecco Village. Shops, schools, parks and public transport on your doorstep.

With strong rental demand, tenants already secured, and excellent long-term growth potential, this home is a standout investment opportunity in a thriving and sought-after area of Ipswich.
