Step into the enchanting world of 16 Ann Street, a grand residence known affectionately as "Fassifern Place". Nestled in the scenic beauty of Kalbar, this exquisite Queenslander home is a captivating blend of heritage charm and modern elegance, perfectly designed for both relaxation and entertaining.

As you approach the property, be enchanted by the beautiful cottage garden, an array of lush fruit trees, and a welcoming garden path that leads you to this elevated and stately home. The majestic front verandah, adorned with an original bullnose roof, offers panoramic views that promise endless days of serene enjoyment.

Inside, discover the rich warmth of wide honey-coloured hoop pine floors that complement the classic tongue and groove walls and high ceilings, enhancing the home's historic allure. Each room breathes an air of sophistication, from the breezy corridors to the formal dining space accented with an inviting archway.

The heart of the home features a modern kitchen equipped with stone benchtops, a double chef's oven, and an almost-new drawer dishwasher. Ample bench and cupboard space, including a practical island bench, make this kitchen a culinary enthusiast's dream. Adjacent to the kitchen, a cosy dining space and an air-conditioned lounge offer perfect spots for casual meals and relaxation.

Venture downstairs to find a generously-sized, air-conditioned studio/office space. This versatile area includes its own modern bathroom, a servery window linking indoor comfort to outdoor charm, hidden fridge space, and integrated laundry facilities, providing the ideal setting for creativity or a private retreat.

Living in this home means enjoying not only the aesthetically pleasing and functional features but also the practical benefits of seven solar panels, town water and sewage services, and two water tanks equipped with electric motors, all on a fully fenced 1201m2 block.
