Designed for comfortable family living, the home features three generous bedrooms plus a study or potential fourth bedroom, including a master suite complete with walk-in robe and ensuite. A central bathroom services the remaining accommodation.

A spacious, light-filled lounge and formal dining area provide an inviting setting for everyday living, while the well-appointed kitchen and meals area flows seamlessly into the family room. A separate rumpus room opens to a sunroom, creating an additional living or entertaining space while taking full advantage of the manicured gardens and picturesque mountain outlook.

The private backyard provides plenty of room for families to enjoy, complemented by gas central heating, Rinnai gas heater in the family room, a reverse-cycle split system to the kitchen and living areas, double glazed windows, roll up fly screens, 19-panel solar system and a double garage.

Perfectly positioned for convenience, the property offers easy access to Gisborne township, local shops, cafés, medical facilities, sporting grounds, major banks and both primary and secondary schooling.

Combining space, flexibility, privacy and an enviable outlook, this is an exceptional opportunity to secure a quality family home in a highly sought-after Gisborne location.
