By Appointment.

Offering approximately 172m² of thoughtfully designed living, the home features three spacious bedrooms, two stylish bathrooms, and an intelligent floorplan that balances open-plan entertaining with private bedroom accommodation. Large windows and multiple balconies invite natural light throughout while enhancing the connection to the spectacular coastal surrounds.

At the heart of the residence, the beautifully appointed kitchen combines elegant stone benchtops with premium appliances and generous preparation space, making it ideal for everyday living and entertaining alike. Timber flooring, quality finishes, and carefully selected design details add warmth and sophistication throughout the interiors.

Perfectly positioned just a short stroll from the golden sands of Surfers Paradise Beach and the dining, shopping, and entertainment precinct of Cavill Avenue, this residence offers an enviable lifestyle within one of the Gold Coast's landmark buildings.
