MOUNTAIN RETREAT - DARGO

Perched high on the hill along Dargo High Plains Road and just on the outskirts of the Dargo Township, this warm and welcoming property offers breathtaking views across the valley and the mountains beyond. The spacious home features the rustic charm of cork flooring and a cosy wood fire, creating a comfortable and homely atmosphere throughout. A versatile mezzanine level provides the option for an additional bedroom or a second living space, while a third separate living area adds flexibility for growing families or guests. Set on 15 acres, the property also includes a dam, an old shearing shed full of character, and a carport. Whether you're seeking a peaceful retreat or a lifestyle change, the magnificent outlook and generous space make this an opportunity not to be missed.
