Stylish Inner City Living

Nestled at the foot of Castle Hill and in one of West End's most sought after streets is this perfectly presented charming Queensland home. Situated on a low maintenance villa block, this property combines the best of heritage style with easy-care gardens and entertaining. The recent addition of an in-ground pool overlooking the outdoor entertaining space compliments the home's focus on casual living. Heritage features such as ornate pressed tin ceilings, tongue and groove, extra wide rustic polished floors and pretty coloured glass casement windows all work beautifully with a recent contemporary renovation. This home oozes style and is perfectly suited to those looking for a stunning inner city lifestyle.
