At the heart of the home, the spacious open plan living area connects seamlessly with the well-appointed kitchen, featuring extensive bench space, plenty of cabinetry, quality appliances and a large breakfast bar with seating. Filled with natural light and complemented by air conditioning and ceiling fans, this inviting space provides plenty of room to relax while still feeling connected to the kitchen and surrounding areas.

A separate dining area provides another dedicated living zone, while upstairs an additional lounge creates valuable extra space for families or those wanting some separation between living areas. A dedicated study nook with built-in cabinetry also provides a practical work-from-home space without encroaching on the bedrooms or main living areas.

The accommodation is generously proportioned, with the main bedroom offering an ensuite and walk-in wardrobe, while the additional bedrooms provide comfortable and versatile spaces. The main bathroom includes both a separate shower and bathtub, with the home also offering a well-equipped internal laundry.

Outside, the property continues to offer plenty of places to unwind, with private courtyard areas surrounded by established greenery creating a relaxed and leafy atmosphere. The covered outdoor area provides an additional space for morning coffee, casual dining or simply enjoying the coastal climate.

Positioned within a well-established residential pocket of Maroochydore, the home places you within easy reach of the Maroochydore CBD, Sunshine Plaza, local cafés and dining, waterways, parks and the beach. With so much of the Coast close at hand, it offers an exceptionally convenient base for those looking for a furnished home without committing to a long-term lease.
