House 3 2 3

FIRST TIME OFFERED TO THE MARKET!

This split-level open-plan home has a natural heart that will pull you in. Whether it's the air-conditioned sunroom or the fully screened entertainment area overlooking lush gardens and reserve, your family will naturally gravitate to the home's stunning living areas which bring the outside in. The fact that the home has been lovingly owned by the one family for 24 years is evident in its picturesque garden and immaculate finishes.

Backing onto a reserve, the mature gardens and stunning outlook provide a wow factor as soon as you walk in the door. Adding to the home's feeling of generosity is its open-plan living space, with cathedral ceilings and an abundance of glass ensuring maximum light. If you are anything like its owners, the fully flyscreened entertaining area overlooking the private rear garden is where you'll want to spend quality time. It has a ceiling fan and sliding door to the rear garden; which is perfect for easy summer living. Its well-presented kitchen with casual dining area and alcove will enhance family life. The large master bedroom with ensuite has ample wardrobe space, and the generous second bedroom with double built-in wardrobes has picturesque windows. It has an immaculately presented three-way bathroom.

Set on a generous 1270 square metre block, and with solar hot water and ample storage, this home is ready to enjoy those who appreciate generosity, space and enjoying one's own lush oasis. It's the sort of place that you'll want to hold on to for 24 years.
