LOOKING FOR AN INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY!!!

With the uncertainty of the share market more and more investors are turning to property. It does not matter what is happening to the economy people still need a roof over their head and the government is willing to help tenants pay the rent. This unit is the ideal investment property being one of six in the complex and offers low maintenance and good rental return. The unit features three spacious bedrooms with built in robes, large bathroom with separate shower and bath, two toilets, open plan living, single garage and paved courtyard. The location is also great with in walking distance to schools, shops, playing fiends and also on a main bus run.
