Set on a spacious block shared with two other cottages/bungalows, the property is positioned along a wildlife corridor and beside a small dam, offering a peaceful, nature-filled setting. An area is available for cultivating seeds, perfect for keen gardeners.

This home would ideally suit a single person or couple who appreciate nature and a relaxed, alternative lifestyle. Woombah is conveniently located between Yamba and Iluka, with easy access to beaches, scenic walks, shops, cafés, shopping centres, and schools. Just minutes from the main highway, it offers both tranquility and convenience.

Applications must be submitted prior to arranging a viewing. Please note that only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.

Lawn maintenance within the tenant's allocated area is the responsibility of the tenant. Please note, the home is equipped with a compost toilet, and prospective tenants are encouraged to research how compost systems operate to ensure they are comfortable with the process. The property is not fully fenced.
