By Appointment.

Featuring two large double bedrooms with carpet, plus a bright sunroom off the main bedroom, the home offers flexible space perfect for a study or reading nook. The inviting lounge room showcases beautiful timber floors, an ornamental fireplace and charming leadlight windows, adding warmth and timeless appeal.

The spacious kitchen provides plenty of room for everyday living, while the original bathroom includes a shower over the bath, maintaining the home's classic character.

With its own private side entrance and access to a large rear garden shared with only one other unit (fully maintained for your convenience), this apartment truly feels as big as a house.

A rare opportunity to secure a character-filled home in a sought-after, peaceful location.
