As if it was taken straight out of a magazine, this sophisticated residence sits as 'one of a kind' in one of the most desired beachside locations on the Fleurieu Peninsula. Showcasing modern architecture with a design influenced by Bali; where the living and sleeping areas are housed in separate pavilions, and with ultra-low maintenance living in mind.

The two pavilions come together at the entrance with the living pavilion boasting soaring cathedral ceilings, polished concrete floors, a combustion fireplace and gorgeous kitchen. The sleeping pavilion, also with high ceilings, comprises of four good-sized bedrooms, the master with sparkling ensuite, a gorgeous family bathroom and laundry with third toilet. The home impresses further in the alfresco area, which carries over the cathedral ceiling from the living pavilion and is complete with an industrial ceiling fan.
