The price is right and so is the Lifestyle!

Set on a generous 2,000m² block this charming home is the perfect pick for a first home, holiday retreat or peaceful retirement escape with its appealing price point and low-maintenance design.

Ideally located near Lake Burrendong and Mookerawa Waters this area is a dream for fishing, water sports and outdoor adventure.

You are also within easy reach of Wellington only 26 mins away while Orange is 41 minutes by car while Stuart Town has a general store, Rural Transaction Centre and heritage railway station.

This modular home features low maintenance cladding and a Colourbond roof, so you won't need to worry about upkeep for years to come.

A front veranda invites you to sit back and soak in the scenery, while the spacious undercover entertaining area at the rear offers a private space to relax or host guests.

Inside, there is an open plan living area with a combined lounge and kitchen space plus a modern style bathroom with a shower-over-bath combo.

Two bedrooms complete the layout, one with a large built-in wardrobe and ceiling fan while potential exists to enhance the decor to add your own personal touch to this home.

Split system air conditioning and solar panels complete this package, so don't miss your chance to secure this delightful home or holiday destination.
