Inside, the welcoming floorplan offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, a light-filled living area and a functional layout designed for relaxed everyday living. The renovated interiors create a warm and inviting atmosphere, making it easy to picture yourself settling in from day one. Whether you're enjoying a quiet night in or hosting family and friends, this home offers a balance of practicality and charm that's hard to find.

Stepping outside, you'll discover an impressive covered deck that's perfect for entertaining in every season. Overlooking the backyard, it's an ideal space for weekend barbecues, morning coffees or simply unwinding after a long day. Adding even more versatility is the separate studio, providing endless possibilities as a home office, creative space, gym, teenage retreat or additional storage, the choice is yours.

Perfectly positioned just moments from Eastern Park and only a five-minute drive to the heart of Warragul's thriving CBD, you'll enjoy easy access to cafés, shopping, schools, public transport and everyday conveniences while still coming home to a peaceful residential setting. Whether you're purchasing your very first home, looking to downsize into something full of character, or adding a quality property to your investment portfolio, 20 Pettit Street presents an outstanding opportunity in one of Warragul's most convenient locations.

A home that's equal parts charm, comfort and potential—this is one you won't want to miss.
