From the moment you arrive you're greeted by the soft rustle of gum leaves, native birdsong and a sense of calm that only bush-meets-coast living can give. Picture starting your mornings with coffee on a future deck, watching the light filter through the trees; evenings spent around the pizza oven, sharing wood-fired dinners under a blanket of stars.

This is a homesite where you can slow down, breathe deeply and design a lifestyle that feels truly your own. Whether you're ready to build now or planning for your future coastal escape, 20 Tree Frog Grove is a rare chance to stake a claim in nature while staying close to community and convenience.
