Queenslander East of Oxley - Renovate or Rebuild!

A character-rich Queenslander in one of Redcliffe's genuinely coveted pockets - no clichés, just fact. Positioned east of Oxley Avenue, you're only a 350m stroll to the waterfront and 800m from Redcliffe Parade's dining, jetty, markets and shopping. This north-facing home carries the kind of charm the Peninsula has so few of: wide frontage, expansive deck, high ceilings, and that unmistakable Queenslander that provides amazing renovation or raising options.

With strong appeal for owner-occupiers and enticing redevelopment potential on its generous allotment, this is an opportunity that doesn't come around often — and shouldn't be missed.

For those seeking development opportunities, one look at the adjacent properties shows that a potential subdivision could take place here, freeing up two modern homes to take advantage of the wonderful position (subject to council approval).

- 405m2 block with a wide 16m frontage (approx)
- High ceilings upstairs with 2 great-sized bedrooms, timber floors, VJ walls & ceilings
- Great size living room + separate dining area
- Modernised kitchen with dishwasher
- Beautiful north-facing deck with ample space, with both bedrooms affording immediate access
- Two bathrooms - one upstairs and one downstairs
- Downstairs offers a great multi-purpose area
- Side access with carport
- Two-car tilt-door garage area
