Bayside Beauty: Classic QLD Highset with Entertaining Decks

Nestled on a lush lawned corner block only 300m from the shores of Redland Bay itself - its two alfresco entertaining decks enticingly visible above premium picket fencing - this three-bed highset has been extensively upgraded while retaining the most charming of its design features.

Highlights:

- Open-plan living/dining + a big family room with bi-folds onto 1 of the 2 decks
- Modern kitchen: stone top island bench, Falcon freestanding gas hob & servery to 2nd deck
- The connecting decks both have yard access, flyover roofs & protective roller blinds
- Raked ceilings, VJ wall panelling, solid + hybrid timber floors & timber fretwork detail
- 3 beds upstairs, master with bi-folds to 2nd deck, a large MPR & storage area below

In good news for the entertainers, there's no shortage of social spaces here! Indoors, the combined living/dining hub is the cosiest of the offerings, flowing into a spacious sunroom that opens through bifolds onto the deepest of the 2 outdoor decks, both covered by flyover roofs with clear roll-down side blinds to keep you protected all year round!

The kitchen is a total treat, gorgeously reimagined with contemporary joinery, central island bench with stone benchtops, and all your mod cons – including a dishwasher and a Falcon freestanding 5-burner gas cooker/oven with a stainless splashback and statement rangehood. Beside the twin sink there's a handy servery/dining bar to the second deck area that will likely be used for breakfast, lunch and dinner!

The 3 bedrooms are all upstairs, 2 with BIRs – one of these the obvious master with its bi-fold connection to one of the decks. Next to a fully integrated laundry, the bathroom features stone-wall tiling behind the vanity and a corner shower, and solar offsets the cost of running multiple split system AC units.

Under the house, a spacious concreted utility room would make a top teen retreat, man cave, or home office – and that's without even tapping into the separate storage room. The decks sit over a pair of generous patio spaces, also protected from the elements and ideal spots for a pool table or table tennis set up.

Cushioned lawns, perfect for play, surround the house and a large shade sail provides a picnic-like alfresco area framed by tropical gardens. On the car front, there's an electric slider over a double driveway off Bay Street, with cover for up to 3 vehicles under the house.
